

Canada Recovery Caregiving Benefit (CRCB) Extended to May 7, 2022

For: All Administrators to share with Students and Families

Re: Federal Benefit for Families and Caregivers with School-Age Children

The CRCB is extending until May 7, 2022. The maximum number of weeks you can apply for also increases to 44 weeks. You can apply retroactively until February 16, 2022 if you are eligible.

The Canada Recovery Caregiving Benefit (CRCB) gives income support to employed and self-employed individuals who are unable to work because they must care for their child under 12 years old or a family member who needs supervised care. This applies if their school, regular program or facility is closed or unavailable to them due to COVID-19, or because they are sick, self-isolating, or at risk of serious health complications due to COVID-19. The CRCB is administered by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA).

If you are eligible for the CRCB, your household can receive $500 ($450 after taxes withheld) for each 1-week period.

If your situation continues, you will need to apply again. Each household may apply for up to a total of 44 weeks between September 27, 2020 and May 7, 2022.
